

L.A. BLOUNT WORK SAMPLES – Website Update Project

Client: Express Warehouse & Delivery
Industry: Third-Party Logistics

Client Overview

Express Warehouse & Delivery is a third-party logistics company which offers warehousing, fulfillment, inventory management, and distribution. The company specializes in the delivery of large bulky items, such as kitchen cabinets, refrigerators, massage chairs, wheelchairs, scooters, and treadmills. They have been in business for 12 years and manage a 25,000 square foot facility located just north of Atlanta, Georgia.

Scope of Work

The company is in the process of revamping their primary website to include updated service lines and capabilities. The directive is to write compelling content for the client's website and marketing materials that introduce their expanded capabilities to prospects and customers. Provide full descriptions of Express Warehouse & Delivery's service lines to be used in multiple marketing communication material.

Comments

The following content is what LA Blount provided. The project required working closely with the client's team and the web developer to capture specific language to use in designing the web pages. In addition to researching and writing the content, ideal images were suggested to complement the descriptions and bring the words to life.

The comprehensive service line descriptions are written to provide a complete summary that can be used in multiple ways, as requested by the client. This makes it easier to expand (or contract) on any feature mentioned on the website, use to write an article, or highlight solutions in a case study. When this client is ready for the next phase of content details, the framework is in place to accommodate the updates.

Also, the service line descriptions can be condensed based on website space and client preference, if needed.

For example, on the 'Warehousing Solutions' service line web page, the website developer can use the lead paragraph, question, and only the bold highlighted title from each bullet point. When a prospect scrolls over the title, the full description is revealed in a pop-up window. This technique reduces the amount of text on the page but still provides access to the full information. This can be used with all 'service line' web pages.

Trust Us to Secure Your Supply Chain

Your business thrives when your supply chain is strong. Let Express Warehouse take the weight off your shoulders with our comprehensive warehousing solutions, designed to streamline your operations and optimize your product flow. When you store with us, you're partnering with a logistics expert who cares as much about your business as you do.

Seamless Inventory Management for Ultimate Control

Precision, Transparency, and Efficiency at Every Step

At Express Warehouse, we know that managing large, bulky inventory isn't just about storage, it's about keeping every item in perfect order, tracked in real time, and ready for distribution when your business demands it. Our Inventory Management System (IMS) is designed to give you full visibility and control, ensuring your products move through the supply chain smoothly, efficiently, and without hassle.

What Makes Our Inventory Management System Exceptional?

- Real-Time Inventory Tracking: Our advanced IMS technology lets you track your inventory from the moment it enters our facility until it's shipped out for delivery. You'll have 24/7 access to your stock levels, with up-to-the-minute updates.
- Barcode and RFID Scanning: Each item is scanned and labeled with precision, allowing you to monitor the exact location of your products within our 25,000-square-foot facility. Whether it's kitchen cabinets or fitness equipment, nothing is lost or misplaced.
- Custom Reporting: Get tailored reports that provide insight into your stock levels, turnover rates, and item locations. This information allows you to plan more efficiently, avoid stockouts, and minimize overstock.
- Integration with Your Systems: Our IMS integrates seamlessly with your internal systems, ensuring that inventory data is always synchronized. Whether you're using an e-commerce platform or an enterprise resource planning (ERP) system, we provide smooth data transfer and communication.
- Scalable Solutions for Growing Businesses: As your business scales, so do our services. Our inventory management solutions are flexible, ensuring we can handle everything from modest inventory needs to large-scale operations involving thousands of items.
- Secure and Organized Storage: We store large and valuable products such as refrigerators, massage chairs, and mobility equipment with care. Our facility is climate-controlled and monitored 24/7 to ensure your goods are always secure and in optimal condition.

Our IMS Benefits Your Business By:

- Reducing the risk of overselling or stockouts
- Streamlining the fulfillment process with better order accuracy
- Providing full transparency and easy access to stock data
- Improving decision-making with detailed analytics and insights
- Enhancing operational efficiency by minimizing manual inventory checks

Your Inventory, Managed with Care and Expertise

At EWD, we believe that your inventory is your business's lifeblood. Our Inventory Management System puts you in the driver's seat, giving you complete visibility and control over your products. With our expert handling and technology, your business can operate smoothly, knowing your stock is accounted for, secure, and ready for dispatch.

Streamlined Fulfillment Solutions for Large-Item Deliveries

Fast, Accurate, and Reliable Order Fulfillment

At Express Warehouse & Delivery, we take the complexity out of large-item fulfillment. Whether you're shipping treadmills, kitchen cabinets, or medical equipment, our specialized fulfillment center services ensure that your products reach customers quickly, safely, and without error. With over 12 years of experience and a state-of-the-art facility designed for handling bulky goods, we're the trusted partner for businesses looking to optimize their fulfillment operations.

Why Choose Express Warehouse & Delivery for Your Fulfillment Needs?

- Large-Item Expertise: Our team is highly trained in the fulfillment of oversized items such as refrigerators, massage chairs, wheelchairs, and scooters. We understand the unique challenges these products present, and we handle each order with care to ensure safe, damage-free delivery.
- End-to-End Order Processing: From the moment an order is placed to the final delivery, we manage the entire fulfillment process. This includes picking, packing, labeling, and shipping, ensuring your customers receive their orders accurately and on time.
- Custom Packaging for Secure Shipping: We use durable, custom packaging solutions to protect large and fragile items during transit. Each product is carefully packed to prevent damage, ensuring your customers receive their orders in perfect condition.
- Same-Day and Next-Day Fulfillment: With our streamlined process and strategic location, we offer same-day and next-day fulfillment options for local and regional deliveries. Your customers don't have to wait long for their large-item orders to arrive.
- Integration with E-Commerce Platforms: Our fulfillment services easily integrate with popular e-commerce platforms, giving you seamless order management. Whether you're selling through your website, Amazon, or other marketplaces, our systems sync directly with your platform for real-time updates.
- Scalable Fulfillment Solutions: Whether you're shipping a few items or handling hundreds of orders a day, our fulfillment center adapts to your needs. We can scale up during peak seasons and provide flexible solutions for growing businesses.
- Transparent Order Tracking: Keep your customers informed with real-time tracking information. Our system provides end-to-end visibility, so both you and your customers know exactly when to expect their order.

Our Fulfillment Services Include:

- Efficient picking, packing, and labeling
- Secure packaging for oversized items
- Shipping coordination and tracking
- Returns management and reverse logistics
- Full integration with your inventory and order systems
